

SCVOA Rating Designations

(with IVOA Modifications)

(Updated 2010)

C1* All criteria for C1 with added:

- Has been evaluated on a high level boys varsity match.
- May be recommended for boys section and/or regional finals as R1 or R2.

C1

- Can officiate with extreme confidence – maintains control of intense upper level girls and boys matches.
- Very strong net-play game.
- Excellent crowd/bench/player awareness and control.
- Understands and signals back-row attack/block.
- Communicates well with partner with silent indicators.
- Consistent on ball-handling calls.
- Understands complicated formations (overlaps/court positioning).
- Demonstrates a high level of game situation experience.
- Scores within given parameters on evaluation and critique.
- Competent at scorekeeping and solving all scorekeeping issues/problems.
- Scores 90 or higher on the classification exam.
- May be recommended for girls section and/or state playoff finals as R1 or R2.

C2

- Conducts good net-play game.
- Handles critical situations well.
- Thorough understanding of mechanics and proper execution.
- Consistent with ball-handling and net-play calls.
- Understanding of formations.
- Good crowd/ bench/ player awareness and control.
- Understands and signals back-row attack/ block.
- Communicates well with partner with silent indicators.
- Scores within given parameters on evaluation and critique.
- Competent at scorekeeping. Can resolve most scorekeeping issues/problems.
- Scores 90 or higher on the classification exam.
- May lack experience on high level matches.

C3

- Good understanding of mechanics and proper execution.
- Less consistent on ball-handling and net-play calls.
- Distinguishes and understands basic formations.
- Average communication with partner with silent indicators.
- Begins to recognize back row attack/block but does not display confidence by calls or consistency.
- Competent scorekeeper. Can resolve common scorekeeping issues/problems.
- Scores 85 or higher on the classification exam.
- Scores within given parameters on evaluation and critique.

C4

- Basic knowledge of rules, mechanics and game protocols.
- Lacks game experience.
- Inconsistent on ball-handling and net-play.
- Weak on understanding of positioning on the court.
- Weak on understanding of back-row attack/block.
- Competent scorekeeper.
- Scores 80 or higher on the classification exam.
- Scores within given parameters on evaluation and critique.

C5

- New official.
- Lacks knowledge of the rules, mechanics and game protocols.
- Needs to work on signals and mechanics.
- Scores within given parameters on evaluation and critique.
- Demonstrates understanding of basic standards of professionalism (uniform, punctuality, bearing).
- Demonstrates understanding/enforcement of liability issues and situations.
- Scores 80 or higher on the classification exam.